PCA is our flagship brand, specializing in the design and manufacturing of glass accessories and aluminum profiles. We strive to provide comprehensive solutions for a wide range of glass applications.

From shower cabins and facades to folding doors and glass wall partitions, our product range covers it all. We offer ready-for-installation products as well as raw materials, ensuring that every customer's needs are met with precision and quality.

Founded in 2008 by Savvas Papadopoulos, PCA emerged as a pioneering brand dedicated to designing cutting-edge systems for glass applications.

Headquartered in the industrial area of Sindos in Thessaloniki, Greece, the company's inception coincided with the challenging period of the Greek Great Recession. However, driven by the visionary leadership of the PGP GROUP CEO, PCA defied the odds and established itself as a formidable presence in the industry. Remarkably, 80% of the company's income stemmed from its successful export activities.

In 2010, PCA's commitment to continuous improvement led to the establishment of the Research and Development (R&D) department within the organization. This pivotal addition opened doors for international innovation and design, as the company delved into extensive studies and research to shape the future of the industry.

A major milestone for PCA came in 2012 when it participated in the Glasstec Düsseldorf Exhibition in Germany, marking its inaugural international exhibition appearance. This milestone propelled the brand to participate in numerous prestigious exhibitions worldwide, cementing its reputation as a global player. Before long, PCA's business activities spread across more than 50 countries, earning the trust and admiration of clients around the globe.

Building on its exceptional achievements, in 2021, PCA further specialized its brand, focusing on delivering tailored solutions that distinguish its offerings from other PGP GROUP brands. This strategic shift allowed PCA to enrich its portfolio of materials and architectural systems, setting new benchmarks for quality and design.
